About the College:

St. Ann's College for Women (Autonomous) affiliated to Osmania University was started in the year 1983. The founder was Smt. Thatipatri Gnanamma; a visionary and missionary who dedicated her life to enlighten and educate poor young girls. The college was reaccredited by NAAC in the year 2018 and was awarded 'A+' grade in the 3rd cycle. The college with 3000 students is now at the forefront of providing quality education for women with the vision of academic excellence, skill enhancement and value enrichment. The academic, social and spiritual elements of St. Ann's College combine to offer the students many windows of opportunity.

About CWS:

The Centre for Women Studies was established in 2009 with one motto "To strive, to seek but not to yield". It has evolved over the years to Centre for Women's Studies. The objective is to help women create an environment that will enable them to realize their full potential.

About the Conference:

Cybercrimes against women are on the raise and they have been drastically victimized in the cyberspace. The conference will address the issues of awareness among women regarding the safe use of new media, increase women's self-awareness about what constitutes violence against women online and awareness of rights, judicial response to the offences of cyber defamation. The experts, academicians, lawyers and other professionals from various sectors will explore, learn, discuss and engage in key concerns in the particular area.

Sub Theme of the Conference:

- Cyber Violence: Women's Visibility and Representation Online
- Impact of New Media
- Women's Rights: Constitution of Legislation
- Women's Safety, Health & Environment
- Human Trafficking
