ABOUT THE COLLEGE

St. Ann's College for Women, an autonomous institution affiliated with Osmania University, re-accredited by the NAAC with an A+ grade in 2018, was established in 1983. The college, with 3500 students, fosters a culturally rich campus, reinforcing the need for an ethical component, integrity and social concern, which in addition to academic excellence and skill enhancement, constitutes the whole educational experience.

ABOUT TELANGANA STATE COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

The Telangana State Council of Higher Education (TSCHE) came into existence by adopting the APSCH Act 16 of 1988 as per the provisions of the AP Reorganization ACT 2014. The Telangana State Council of Higher Education is primarily a coordinating body between the University Grants Commission (UGC), the State Government, and the Universities. It is the general duty of the Council to coordinate and determine standards in institutions of Higher Education, Research, Scientific, and Technical Institutions under the guidelines issued by the UGC from time to time. The Act 16 of 1988 envisages three distinct functions (a) Planning and Coordination, (b) Academic Functions, and (c) Advisory Functions.

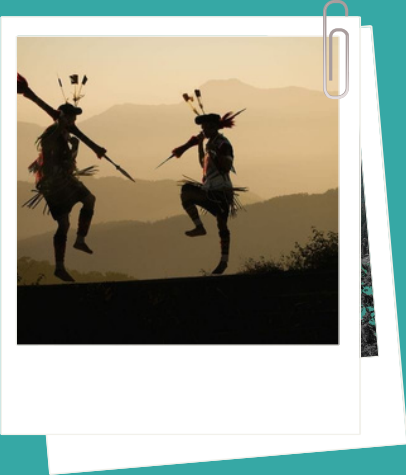

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The diverse cultures and traditions of the North-East region are a reflection of our nation. Yet majority of them go unnoticed. We intend to present a more comprehensive image of the Northeast region through this conference so that people may look past issues of race and insurgencies. It will contribute to and present opportunities for students and scholars to investigate the region's rich history, beauty, and distinctiveness, enhancing with a greater awareness of the region and why it must be viewed as one among many. We anticipate that this conference will undoubtedly strengthen our sense of community.
