LITERARY COMMITTEE

Report for the year 2020 - 2021

Literary activities are an integral part of quality education. The aim of conducting literary activities is to provide a platform for sharing ideas and experiences. Literary activities play a pivotal role in channelizing the energy of the students into a fruitful direction of personality development. Developing love for language and literature is possible through various recreational activities.

The activities were conducted online.

- The department in association with HydRAW conducted an online presentation on "Featured talks on books" on 11th July, 2020 through meet.google.com.. The participants spoke about their favourite books.

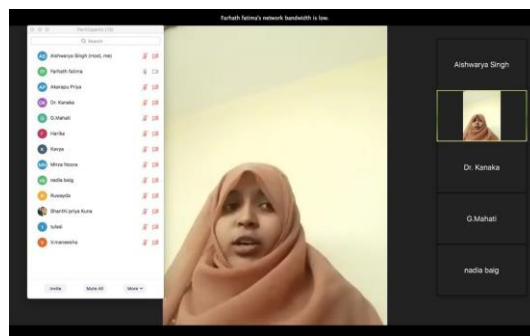

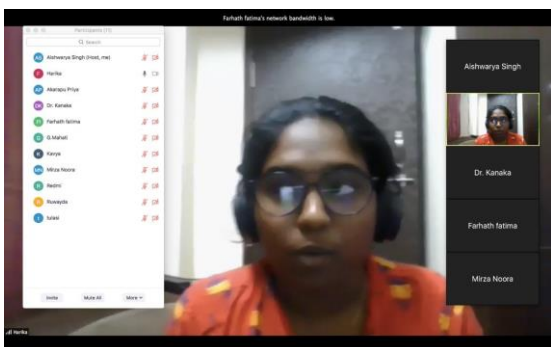

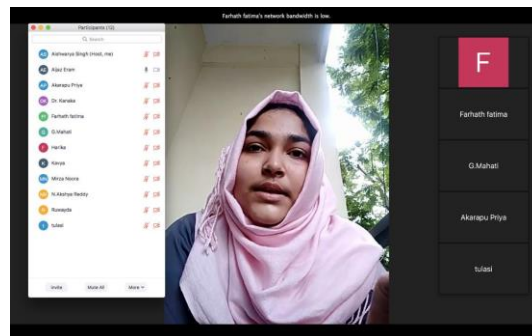

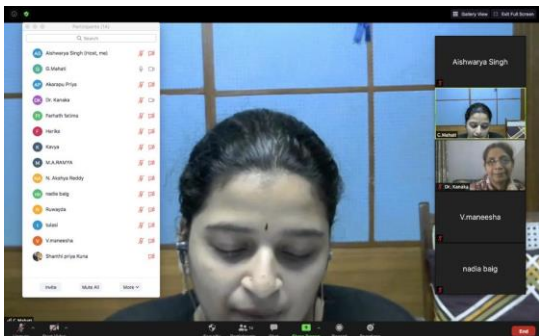

- “Share your lockdown experience” was conducted on 18th July, 2020 through Zoom. The event was conducted by The Orators’ Club, Department of English to provide a space for students to speak about what they are thankful for and what did they do to be productive during the pandemic.
