ANN'S MILAN- LITERARY EVENTS

Venue –AV room

The National level literature festival of St. Ann's college for Women saw a fresh look at making literature fun while throwing light on a range of relevant topics. The annual festival of literature (ANNOFESTA) organized by the English & Language Departments believes in mixing it up, with performances, quirky competitions and lecture demonstrations. The 2-day festival which celebrates the integration of art and reading relevant to the theme of Indian Culture. A variety of activities including Poetry Competition, Fun with Storytelling by giving a new twist to the end of the story, Literary Extempore, etc., were held that gave a creative platform to the students to explore their latent talent and also gave wings to their imagination.

The program was organized in hybrid mode under the supervision of Dr. Meena Patangay, Dean Administration, Dr. Mahita, Dean students, and Ms. Sunitha David, HOD, English Dept.

A large number of students participated in the event that reflected their passion and interest. An open questioning forum was held in the end to resolve all the queries in the minds of students. The activity concluded with the enlightening speech of the Judge and Chief Guest Mr. Illyas and Ms. Fathima
