Overview

Today's corporate sector is increasingly emphasizing on sustainability as a key to business success and prosperity. The bottom line attention of corporates revolves around three important pillars of sustainability- people, profits and environment. To sustain in competitive market, companies have to monitor and assess the emerging trends in order to help maintain an existing business or a startup. Industry analysts need to spot these trends and discover innovative ways to make profits and reach customers with new and exciting products. Technology, automation and outsourcing stand as foundation to help business heads explore and learn ways to gain competitive advantage. When all the three pillars of sustainability are strengthened, it leads to a holistic growth and development of economy. No form of economic growth can be continued without environment sustainability. Sustainability that focuses on renewable resources, waste disposal, development of renewable substitutes for resources that can be continued indefinitely should be emphasized on a larger scale by balancing between what is good for the environment and what is good for the economy.

The conference aims to bring together various leading academicians, researchers, industry experts and students to have enriching discussions on latest trends of the new decade in areas of business, management and entrepreneurship.

PERSUING GLEE

Happiness is a gem, for all and sundry

The world got enthralled to pursue glee

I heard them say

Abundance is the key

You know it in your gut when
It went missing in a loving friend's company

It's quest took me near the sea
Couldn't find it in dense forests,
Or among the prairies

One day I woke up
Made myself a cup of tea
Had tears running down my face
When I found it me.
