About the Conference

The conference titled “Blending Heritage with Innovation: The IKS Approach in Academia” aims to explore the relevance and application of Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) in contemporary higher education. In alignment with the objectives of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, the conference seeks to create awareness among faculty, researchers, industry experts, & students about integrating IKS into curriculum design, pedagogy, and research practices. By engaging educators in dialogue and reflection, the conference aspires to empower them as change agents who can blend India's rich intellectual heritage with global academic advancements to achieve excellence in teaching, learning, and research. This initiative seeks to empower faculty, researchers, industry experts & students to reimagine curriculum and research through the lens of indigenous wisdom, fostering interdisciplinary perspectives and value-based education.

About the College

St. Ann's College for Women, founded in 1983 by the Sisters of St. Anne, began with two programs and 106 students and has grown into a large institution with over 3,500 students and 45+ UG and PG programs. The college now has more than 145 faculty members across 30 departments, ensuring strong academic delivery. It consistently maintains high academic standards with a supportive learning environment and modern infrastructure. A wide range of curricular and co-curricular activities promotes holistic development and employability skills. The institution is committed to character building, critical thinking, social responsibility, and nation building. It is accredited with NAAC 'A' Grade with CGPA 3.24 and ranked in the 201-300 band by NIRF.

About the IQAC

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at our institution embodies a visionary approach towards fostering a culture of continuous quality enhancement, with a focus on innovation, ideation, and the internalization of a quality culture. IQAC aims to be a “Quality Connect” within our academic community. Engaging stakeholders through feedback mechanisms and interactive forums and promoting holistic developments aligns with our mission to create globally competent individuals grounded in moral, social, and spiritual values.

About the SAMPRAJNA (IKSC)

St. Ann's College has established the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) Cell—SAMPRAJNA, in line with the Ministry of Education's vision to revive India's ancient knowledge traditions. The cell promotes research, education, and outreach by integrating classical Indian wisdom with modern academic disciplines. It encourages the study of ancient texts, rituals, and traditions through interdisciplinary research, curriculum integration, and academic programs.
